

COTG team members Dr Gerben Mol, Dr Richard Nunes, Suzanne vnder Meulen and Alastair were in attendance at RUAF Foundation's 'Feeding the City' event at the Stadtheater in Almere earlier this year. The event was part of RUAFs Growthe City project and provided an opportunity for North-South knowledge exchange.

Getting the word out

It has been a busy few months for the whole of the CTG team with a big push to get the word out about the project. September saw the successful launch of the surveys, with Ben Burfoot (Sustainability manager, Reading Borough Council) and Alok

Consumers and enterprises give their opinion on local food production

- Producers experience barriers in the availability of production space, market access, complex regulations, high costs and low margins.
- Success factors mentioned by producers include the selling of a

Kcf_g\cd'Đ5WWY`YfUh]b [ ' I fVUb' Farming, searching for business incubatorsÑ

On October 9th, the Cities on the Grow project organised a workshop in Almere, The Netherlands, to inventory successes and constraints to the development of urban agriculture, to identify potential contributions

---